Kannada Summer School

Kannada as a Classical Language

Kannada, the Dravidian language of the South Indian state of Karnataka, is a classical Indian language and distinguished by its rich literary history. Today, Kannada is spoken by about 50 million people.

The course provides an introduction into classical Kannada language and classical Kannada literature. The classical literary genre champu will be introduced along with its form and content. Selected major texts of classical Kannada, viz. Kaviraajamarga, Vaddaaraadhane, Pampa Bharata, Gadaayuddha, Yashodhara Charite and some Jain Purana texts will be read and studied in the course. The Reader "Classical Kannada Poetry and Prose" by C.N. Ramachandran and B.A. Viveka Rai, published in 2015, will be used as a basic text in the course.

Participants are expected to possess or acquire basic reading and writing skills of Kannada before attending the course. Study materials for the Kannada script can be sent to you upon request.

The course is taught by Prof. Dr. B.A. Viveka Rai, who is a retired professor of Kannada Literature and Folklore at the University of Mangalore. Since 2010, he is a regular guest professor at the Chair of Indology, University of Würzburg, teaching Kannada as well as courses on the culture and literature of Karnataka.
